Sel-disent Alderman Asserts He Has Long Lost One Safe but Unsound.

SOON TO PRODUCE HIM.

Makes Terrible Allegations, but Says Famous Hounds Are All Right.

ory Pfiffer, former Secretary of Vegetarian Dog Owners' Associa-Whose mysterious disappearance ple of menths age was the talk yes continents, is again in the t. An unknown correspon ving in the Bronz, claims to have dis-word him and the Banson Hound and Jilli detter, whose disappearwas coincident with the departure by the correspondent. He says to is an Alderman, and that he is not one for the $500 reward of-red for the apprehension of Prof. filler. On the other hand, he is very formspeet with regard to detail, and the can be no doubt that he has either on him or at least heard from him. More is the letter:

Executed! Shut off the power boye.

Shave test J. Henry Pflifter and he is sains. I've get him out in the garage colling quickly to a hangover and will be able to present him to the Fight Commission of the Vegetarian Heates! Club late in the work. I would be do as much as possible, because down upon his transment earn, to meter the speck of the reappharance. Frankly, Frist is not all right. I hadn't been talking to this three calcutes before I readiled that he had leaped the mental trackeds and was out to lunch.

Poor Fill, no matter nut dyer left limiter, Or course, when I first new him he was council to the Payche. The test me that he had taken a ministent of maderia in a vat of mile and that it had gone directly to his hackand. But since he had taken a ministent of the other to the heat taken of the distent and were chen over. He is cartainly a hard look bivaive.

I know you are anyon of the poculiar miner in which I discovered J. Strony, You'll upset the temp when you hear it.

UPSIDE DOWN.

"Whe matter?" said Henry, and as he ventured this brilliant conversational effort he took both the priceless canines by the talk and held them in one hand, heads down, as he adjusted his tie.

Right there I jumped on him.
"Henry," said I, sternly, "have you been feeding that plantain beast and exercising the Side Hill mutt properly? I ask in the name of the Vegetarian Club and common decency, have you procured a mountain for that setter?"

At this point I first realized that Henry had become as nutty as a

Henry had become as nutty as a fruit cake. He began to talk like a ruined music box, and by way of gesticulation waved his hand over gesticulation waved his hand over his head, toppled backward and sat squarely upon the two dogs. "Slip-poo Buncho!" howled the Banana. Hound. "Mounty, Mounty," gurgled the Side Hhil Setter. Without waiting another moment I grabbed Henry and halled a pass-ing taxi. "Where do you want to mo?" asked the chuffeur as I tengo?" asked the chuffeur as I ten-derly placed the dogs beside Henry

"To the Bronz," I answered, "and

"Can't so out of Monhattan," said the chauseur, "but I'll risk it for Miss are you on?"

I was enraged. "In all my experience, said I," ever since I was elected Alderman.

I said no more. The chauffour had left his seat, had dusted off a epot at the curb and was kneeling.

"Are you an Alderman, Ter Honor?"

AND YET HE GESMED TO KNOW AN ALDERMAN.

"Take this nithel," he said, offering me the soin. "It's all I've got now, but I've got some rags at home that I will sell and bring you the money. Would you like to ride around New York and New Jersey before I take you up to the Bronx?" he added.
"No, drive me to the Bronx forthwith I have two valuable does that with, I have two valuable dogs that I must care and a rum who must be resusticated."

Then we went Bronxward.

Henry is coming around nicely, but will never be quite the same. I speak to him kindly now and anon, but you might as well talk to an open lot as to try to get results from a noodle the Henry has.

I have rigged up a small hill in the back yard for the Bide Hill Setter and he has been running around it for the last twelve hours, stopping only a moment new and then for a bit of canned tripe and a drop of brandy in milk. He saw Henry get his package and fell for it.

It.

The Banana Mound has eaten three bunches of yellow and one of red and never looked better. I gave him a strawberry early this morning, but noticed, when he barked shortly afterward, that it sounded like "Strawbuncho," se will have to keep him at the old standby.

I do not wish to claim the 500 reward because, being an Alderman, money means nothing to me, no matter whose it is. Give that bankroll to charity. Bither a Home for the Light Enters or the Bull Moose party and believe me, no matter what rumors you may hear, Bincerely yours.

Four Boy Burglars Caught in Gimbels Trying to Escape With Load of Plunder.

Load of Plunder.

Four small boys—three colored and one white—who hid in Gimbols' when it closed last night, were captured early this morning on the fifth floor of the store with a large millinery box in which were three dozen goif balls, five baseballs, several, baseball mitts and fifteen cheap watches. The diminutive burglars' said they were figuring on a way to set out with their plunder. The boys were heard moving about by Harry Brown, a night watchman, who telephoned the West Thirtieth street police station for help. Detective Bauerschmidt was sent and the detective. Brown and several other watchmen made their way upstairs. Brown crawled along the floor, switched on the lights and discovered the four boys.

They said they were John Schoonmaker, thirteen, of No. 26 West Forty-first street; Norman Allen, twelve, of No. 364 West Fortieth street; James Morton, nine, of No. 363 West Forty-first street, and Theodore Hins, eleven, of No. 365 West Forty-eighth street. Hins is white.

Mount Vernon Man Poll or Was Throws From Trata.

A man who eaid he was Frank J. Bastell of No. 50 Villa avenue, Mount Vernon, and had evidently fallen or been thrown from a freight train, was found in a semi-consolous condition early this morning in the New York Central yards under Melrose avenue bridge.
When Dr. Frankfeldt arrived the man was dead. Death was due to a fracture of the skull and shock.
A number of milk drivers looked at the body, but were unable to identify the man as one of them.

Climate Failed: Medicine Effective

Rest, fresh air and well-cooked, neurishing food do help many persons entirely with Lung Trouble. But in many cases the disease is enly temporarily "arrested," and something more is needed. Eckman's Alterative is a medicine for Throat and Lung Troubles and has brought about many complete roce, "arise—in many cases where the surroundings were not ideal. Judging by the many reports of recoveries received, we believe it should be used in every case of Lung Trouble. A remarkable case follows:
